Farmingville, NY – On April 14, Supervisor Ed Romaine and Councilwoman Jane Bonner attended the North Shore Little League (NSLL) Opening Day ceremonies. The league, which was established in 1963, offers boys and girls, ages six through sixteen, the opportunity to play organized baseball and softball with their peers at fields on Route 25A in Rocky Point. Pictured in the back row, left to right are Supervisor Romaine; County Legislator Sarah Anker; NSLL Board Member Burke Kincaid; Senator Ken LaValle; NSLL Board Members Steve Capell and Gary Catalanotto; Councilwoman Bonner and NSLL Board Member Mike Guido. Also pictured are the coaches and members of the Yankees.

Supervisor Romaine said, "The North Shore Little League opening day is a sure sign that spring is here. It's great to see the excitement as the players take the field and the umpire shouts 'play ball.' I wish everyone a successful and fun season."

Councilwoman Bonner said, "There's no better way to spend a beautiful spring day than opening day of the Little League season. These children wait all winter to get started and you can really feel their enthusiasm. Thanks to the North Shore Little League volunteers, well over 800 children are able to participate to help make the season fun for everyone."
